

31st May - Day 1: Religious Freedom between Past and Present

15.00-15.30	Opening Ceremony
15.30-16.15	Keynote Session	Chair: Dr. Doc. Saša Horvat (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Todd Huizinga (Religious Freedom Institute, USA)	Religious Freedom in the Post-Religious West
			Márk Aurél Érszegi (Unit for Religion and Diplomacy, Hungarian Ministry of Foreign Affairs and Trade)	Hungarian approach to the promotion of FoRB – the Hungary Helps Program
			Discussion
16.15-16.30	Coffee break
16.30-17.30	Afternoon Plenary Session	Chair: Dr. Przemysław Komorowski (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Prof. Paweł Skibiński (University of Warsaw, Poland)	The situation of the Catholic Church in the People's Republic of Poland from the point of view of violations of religious freedom - an attempt to organize the issues and grasp the dynamics of change
			Gabriela Gajda (University of Wrocław, Poland)	Historical perspective at censorship and restriction of religious freedom in Poland. Case study at the turn of the 1940s and 1950s
			Prof. Lóránt Csink (Pázmány Péter Catholic University, Hungary)	Freedom of Conscience in Public Life
			Discussion

1st June - Day 2: Religious Freedom in Action

9.30-11.00	Morning Session	Chair: Dr. Doc. Saša Horvat (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Dr. Raúl César Cancio Fernández (Judicial Adviser of The Spanish Supreme Court, Spain)	Maine and Murcia, so far so close. Private religious education and public subsidies
			Rev. Prof. Franciszek Longchamps de Bérier (Jagiellonian University, Poland)	Taking a Knee. Pencils through the Lemon's Heart
			Prof. Marek Bielecki (War Studies University in Warsaw, Poland)	Religious freedom in parent-child relationships
			Dr. Adam Jakuszewicz (Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz, Poland)	Resolving Conflicts between Parents with Regard to Religious Upbringing of Their Children in the Jurisprudence of the Polish Supreme Court and the European Court of Human Rights
			Dr. Agnieszka Gilewska (University of Warmia and Mazury, Poland)	Religious conflicts versus the process for declaring nullity of marriage
			Discussion
11.00-11.30	Coffee break
11.30-13.00	Keynote Session	Chair: Rev. Prof. Franciszek Longchamps de Bérier (Jagiellonian University, Poland)	Dr. Marcela Szymanski (Aid to The Church in Need, Belgium)	Fabricating religious minorities: the cases of Nigeria and Lebanon
			Dr. Felix Boellmann (Alliance Defending Freedom International, Austria)	Religious expression today – threats and trends from a legal advocacy perspective
			Dr. Aleksandra Djurić Milovanović (Institute for Balkan Studies of the Serbian Academy of Arts and Sciences)	Evangelical communities in Serbia: patterns of indirect discrimination and „invisible“ religious identity
			Dr. Iwona Zamkowska (UTH Radom/Voice of the Martyrs)	Freedom of religion or belief for Christian minority in Pakistani system of education – a jeopardized human right
			Discussion
13.00-14.00	Lunch break

14.00-16.00	Discussion Panel	Chair: Dr. Marcela Szymanski (Aid to The Church in Need, Belgium), Dr. Doc. Saša Horvat (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Madeleine Enzberger (Observatory on Intolerance and Discrimination against Christians in Europe, Austria)	Fundamental Freedoms of Christians in Europe under pressure: Why it should concern all of us
			Ibrahim Sabra (Budapest Business School, Hungary)	Persecution of Christians in Syria and Hungarian help for the persecuted. A testimony
			Marijana Petir (Croatian Parliament, Croatia)	Direct Aid to the Persecuted Christians
			Illia Djadi (Open Doors, UK)	The Church Under Pressure - A Spotlight on Sub-Saharan Africa
			Yusuf Elisha Karu (University of Debrecen, Hungary)	The Challenges of Christians Living in Northern Nigeria - a Personal Experience
			Łukasz Wilczyński (Open Doors, Poland)	Arise Africa – invitation to Global Integrated Campaign
			Discussion
2nd June - Day 3: Religious Freedom between Present and Future
9.30-11.00	Morning Session	Chair: Prof. Aleksandra Vanney (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Prof. Javier Martínez-Torrón (Complutense University, Spain)	Freedom of expression and anti-religious abusive speech: some recent issues in the Strasbourg case law
			Dr. Doc. Saša Horvat (University of Rijeka, Croatia)	Hate speech – a philosophical perspective
			Prof. Manuel Lázaro Pulido (International University of La Rioja, Spain)	Response to the supposedly neutral versions of Public Space and Religious Symbolism in the Spanish Secular State
			Prof. Hans-Martien ten Napel (Leiden University, the Netherlands)	The state of religious freedom: a (partially) external perspective
			Discussion
11.00-11.30	Coffee Break
11.30-13.00	Keynote Session	Chair: Dr. Weronika Kudła (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Prof. Asher Maoz (Tel-Aviv University & Peres Academic Center, Israel)	Freedom of Religion and Freedom From Religion – The Judaic Approach
			Prof. Mark Hill (University of Notre Dame London Law Program, UK)	Religious Courts and Tribunals in English Law
			Prof. Christine Mengès-Le Pape (Toulouse Capitole University)	Religious freedom in France in the context of the law of 24 August 2021
			Prof. Cyril Hovorun (University College Stockholm, Sweden)	The War and the Orthodox Church Churches in Russia and Ukraine
			Discussion
13.00-14.00	Lunch Break
14.00-16.00	Closing Plenary Session	Chair: Rev. Prof. Piotr Roszak (Religious Freedom Laboratory)	Prof. Andrea Pin (University of Padua, Italy)	When Rights go Wrong: The Fate of Religious Freedom and Constitutionalism in the 21st Century
			Dr. Przemysław Komorowski (Religious Freedom Laboratory, Poland)	Contemporary interpretations of the principle of equality and non-discrimination - is there still room for religious freedom in the Western world?
			Jean-Baptiste Le Pape (Toulouse Capitole University, France)	Religious liberty and real estate law - current issues in France
			Dr. Weronika Kudła (Religious Freedom Laboratory, Poland)	A New Dawn for Religious Freedom in American Public Life
			Discussion
			Rev. Prof. Piotr Roszak	Final Remarks